The Lindsey-Wilson Will Reopen.

It will be gratifying to the students and the people of Columbia and the adjoining counties to Adair, to know that the Lindsey-Wilson will reopen on Monday, the 26th of this month. There was but one expression when the school closed, temporarily, and that was regret. A little excitement is soon over, hence the school should not have closed. All the teachers are ready to resume work, and it is our information that the students are ready to re-enter. The school is the life of Columbia, and a convenience for adjoining counties, and we are sorry that it shutdown, but the time will be made up. Everett Allison a Candidate.

In to-day's paper Mr. Everett Allison, who lives in East Columbia precinct, is announced as a candidate for Assessor of Adair county, subject to the action of the Republican party. Mr. Allison has been identified with the party of his choice since he became a voter and has never before asked for a position. He is a farmer, but for the last three years has been teaching school. He is a young man who stands high in the community where he lives — is industrious, and should he be nominated and elected he promises to give the office his attention first, and will endeavor to return a complete list. A. H. Feese Before the People.

Under the head of announcements, Mr. A. H. Feese, of the Egypt precinct, is before the people of Adair county for the office of Jailer, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Mr. Feese is a son of Samuel Feese who for many years run a mill where Mr. G. B. Smith is now engaged in that business. Near the site of this mill is where A. H. Feese was born and reared, and where he was known as an industrious, good citizen. Later he removed to Green river where he engaged in farming, the vocation he follows at his present location. He has been identified with the Democratic party ever since he reached his majority, and has worked in the interest of the candidates of his party in every election. This is the first time he has ever asked the Democrats of the county to favor him with a nomination, and he promises, should he be chosen as the nominee at the August primary, he will use his earnest efforts to win in November. He submits his candidacy and fitness for the position, and asks that his record be investigated, and if found worthy, he will appreciate all the aid that will come to him in the contest. In the next few months he will call upon the voters of the county.

For Re-election.

The formal announcement of Mr. C. G. Jeffries, for the Democratic nomination for jailer of Adair county, appears in the proper column of this issue. As is known by all the people of this county, Mr. Jeffries is our jailer, and a man who is filling his office in a most satisfactory manner, receiving the endorsement of the people as well as any man who has filled this position for many years. So far as we have heard not a criticism has been made against his official conduct, either from the unfortunates who have occupied the cells or the people in general—a position, a distinction rarely enjoyed by any man. Personally Mr. Jeffries is an agreeable, pleasant gentleman, and takes the view of the bright side of life which adds sunshine rather than shadow with his fellow man. He doubtless enjoys as many friends as any public official could hope to have, and uses The News to inform his party that he asks for approval in the form of the party nomination in the August primary, and if given will use all honorable means to prove worthy in the final contest between the parties. Gentlemen of the Democratic faith, you know Gus: you know he is not only a good jailer, but a good runner. We present his candidacy for your consideration.

Noah Loy a Candidate.

In the News to-day Mr. Noah Loy, who was born and reared in the Harmony precinct, now living and has for several years in the Elroy precinct, announces his candidacy for the office of School Superintendent of Adair county, subject to the action of the Democratic party, as expressed at the August primary. Mr. Loy is a son of Robert Garnett Loy, and no man in the county has a cleaner record as an upright citizen, nor one who has been more faithful to the party, that he has been identified with since he reached his majority. He received his certificate to teach nineteen years ago, and for eighteen years he has been teaching in the common schools of this county and adjoining counties, Cumberland and Metcalfe, giving satisfaction. His moral character is above reproach, and he is thoroughly qualified for the position he seeks. He desires to assure the Democrats of the county that if they will nominate him he will leave no stone unturned to win at the November election. In the Southern and Western section of the county he is well acquainted, and Nearing the End.

Mr. Jo H. Smith, a well-known farmer and trader of this county, is lying at the point of death at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. J. N. Coffey. He was taken sick last Wednesday night, and has not spoken nor taken any nourishment since, not even water. The Doctors, as we are informed, have decided that he has a clot on the brain. He is receiving close attention, but the physicians hold out no hope.

Since writing the above death came, the hour being at 5 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning. The deceased was reared on the farm near Gradyville, now owned by Nell Bros. He was a son of John Smith, who was one of the best citizens of Adair county. His mother was, before her marriage, Miss Bettie Speak, a most excellent woman. Jo Smith, the deceased, was fifty-six years old, and his reputation for honest dealing in all his business transactions was known over the county. He leaves one brother, Mr. Lee Smith, and two sisters, Mrs. J. N. Coffey and Miss Kittie Smith, and a large circle of relatives. As we go to press arrangements for the funeral have not been made, but the interment will likely be at this place.

For the Legislature.

Mr. Joe Huddleson, of Cumberland county, is a candidate to represent Adair and Cumberland in the next Legislature. He is a Republican and his candidacy is subject to the action of said party. He was reared on a farm and is in sympathy with that class, and will do all in his power to assist the farmers and other taxpayers in lightening their burdens. He grew from infancy to manhood in Adair county, and he feels a deep interest in her citizenship. Later he hopes to visit Adair and meet his friends.

An Asperant for Jailer.

This week Mr. Frank Wolford Miller, who lives in the Little Cake precinct, announces himself a candidate for Jailer of Adair county, subject to the action of the Republican party, expressed at the August primary. Mr. Miller is one of the best known men in Adair county and his friends are numerous. Some years ago he served the county as deputy sheriff under R. A. Blair, for 2 years and a little later he was elected Sheriff, filling the office in a very acceptable manner for four years. He is a man of good moral character, and has been loyal to the Republican party since he became a voter. A Jailer should be sober and watchful, and these qualities are possessed by Mr. Miller. He expects to thoroughly canvass the county, presenting his claims and he is anxious for his friends to do every thing in their power, in an honorable way, to secure his nomination. Should he be nominated he will double his activity—ride day and night, to win at the November election.

Cough Medicine for Children.

Mrs. Hugh Cook, Scottsville, N. Y., says: "About five years ago when we were living in Garbutt, N. Y., I doctor two of my children suffering from colds with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and found it just as represented in every way. It promptly checked their coughing and cured their colds quicker than anything I ever used." Obtainable at Paul Drug Co. Adv

Gadberry.

Mrs. Sarah G. Bird who left last September for California to live with Mr. Bird Stone, a boy who Mrs. Bird raised, writes us, she is well pleased with her new home. She also says all the people in California are kind and good to her.

We are glad to know that this good woman has such a good home. Mrs. Bird was a good woman and a good neighbor, ever ready to help the poor and sick in anyway that she could. She has many relatives and friends in Adair county who certainly do miss her.

From Springfield, Ill.

I am sending $5 to renew my paper again. I have been taking the Adair County News for the past eight years now, and I like to hear from the old friends and of what they are doing.

We are having some very cold weather. It was 15 below zero here. We haven't had any snow this winter—just a few flakes once in a while.

Corn is very high here. It sells on the street for $1 a bushel, and wheat is $1.79 a bushel. A 50 pound sack of flour costs $2.95.

I came from Adair county seventeen years ago. I live on a farm of 160 acres in good settlement.

I will close, hoping to see this in print. Thomas A. Taylor.

Danger Signal.

If the fire bell should ring would you run and stop it or go and help to put out the fire? It is much the same way with a cough. A cough is a danger signal as much as a fire bell. You should, no more try to suppress it than to stop a fire bell when it is ringing, but should cure the disease that causes the coughing. This can nearly always be done by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many have used it with the most beneficial results. It is especially valuable for the persistent cough that so often follows a bad cold or an attack of the grip. Mrs. Thomas Beeching, Andrews, Ind., writes: "During the winter my husband takes cold easily and coughs and coughs. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks and you cannot get him to take any other." Obtainable at Paul Drug Co. Adv

Mr. and Mrs. Will Bailey are both confined to their beds, at this writing. The former a victim of rheumatism the latter has bronchial trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Conover visited the latter's niece last Sunday, Mrs. Lillie Wilson near Cray Craft.

Inactivity Causes Constipation.

Lack of exercise in the winter is a frequent cause of constipation. You feel heavy, dull and listless, your complexion is sallow and pimply, and energy at low ebb. Clean up this condition at once with Dr. King's New Life Pills, a mild laxative that relieves the congested intestines without griping. A dose before retiring will assure you a full and easy movement in the morning. 25c at Paul Drug Co. Adv

She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

The people here are up-to-date farmers and are now enjoying the great wave of prosperity to which they are entitled for the honest and energetic labors they have performed in cultivating the soil. They realize that every thing they have to sell brings high and remunerative prices, and therefore they are in a gleeful mood. The future seems bright, as "coming events cast their shadows before." The Green river valley is noted for the fertility of its soil and the hospitality of its citizens. Some time ago we visited our old friend John Knifley, and the reception we received was cordial in the highest degree. Every member of his family is debonair and his beautiful daughters are not surpassed in Adair county for their accomplishments and popularity. If you should pass John Knifley and want a good dinner, call at his house and be hospitably received. When you come to the South side of Green river you will meet the Williams boys, Millers, Reed and others, who will gladly welcome you to their domiciles. Pass to Mont Harmon's and you find an energetic farmer, whose hospitality is unbounded. W. R. Knifley comes next, and you may rest assured you will meet a genial and prosperous farmer, who can entertain you in a superb manner. P. P. Wesley, one of the best men of this section, and who owns one of the best farms in Adair county will always receive you with a facetious smile.

The majority of the people here favor State wide prohibition, and their battle cry is, "Ring out the old ring in the new, Ring out the false, ring in the true." N.

Fonthill.

Quite a number here are confined with measles. Finley Richardson, who has been confined for some time, is improving slowly.

Mr. Robert Thomas and wife, of East Fork, visited here Sunday.

Mr. James Ragh, a prominent farmer, of Casey county, has moved into our midst. We wish him a prosperous future.

Mr. Leander Smith, who has been engaged in the milling business here for a number of years, has sold his interest to Mr. Willie Holtzclaw.

Mr. N. J. Judd, of Smithfield, Ill., visited relatives here Thursday, after an absence of 37 years. Mr. Judd grew to manhood here, and his many friends were glad to meet him.

Albert Hammond, the well-known live stock dealer, of Turkey Fork, was here Saturday.

John Irwin was at Russell Springs on business Wednesday.

Cornelius Stephens, a prominent farmer, of Ell, was here Friday, and bought a nice bunch of hogs of Jack Brown, at 9 cents per pound.

Uncle Willie Shepherd visited friends and relatives on Mountain Tea Ridge, Saturday.

Mr. Frank Hughes, deputy sheriff, of Russell Springs, was here Friday.

Will Ragh, a prominent merchant of Windsor, spent Saturday night with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Ragh.

Mr. J. D. Hammond, a prominent merchant of Brady, was here Saturday.

Newton Emerson, who resides here has recently come in possession of an ancient iron kettle that has been preserved for ages. We hope the old-time relic will be preserved, in order that the future generation will learn the manner of cooking utensils our forefathers used.

Our town continues to prosper. Fonthill is surrounded by as good farming country as Russell county affords. The farmers here are industrious, and are making good. We are only 34 miles from the Casey county line. The only disadvantage we have is the lack of good roads.

Steps are being taken to safeguard all American ports to quell disturbances by German sympathizers.

Recently we published in these columns an offer of The Youth's Companion and McCall's Magazine, both for a full year, for only $2.10, including a McCall Dress Pattern. The amount of reading, information and entertainment contained in the fifty-two issues of the Youth's Companion and the value of twelve monthly fashion numbers of McCall's at $2.10 offer a real bargain to every reader of this paper.

Editor News:

Since our last letter we have had two northers. On Wednesday morning it was clear and bright, but by ten o'clock the wind began to blow from the North, and before night it was cold as Christmas, and by Thursday morning the thermometer was the lowest of the winter—14 degrees above zero. Then yesterday (Sunday) morning, it was a fine prospect for a beautiful day. We all went to Sunday School and church, and enjoyed it all real well. 165 in Sunday School. They have three violins and one piano, associated with the choir, and the music was fine.

We were all invited to take dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Morgan, who live within 1 1/2 miles of town. He has a beautiful place with twenty-seven acres of rich land, and nice fruit trees of different kinds. One room of his house is used as a museum. He has a great variety of specimen of ore and metal from different parts of the country, and a great variety of fire arms of ancient times, and many Indian relics. He values his museum very highly. He could sell his little farm for more than $5,000. He is a brother to Ed and Granville Morgan, of Cumberland county. Mrs. Morgan is a native of Kentucky, but has lived in Texas since her girlhood. She had prepared an excellent dinner for us and we laid off the diet restraint for the day, and do not feel any worse for it. We were enjoying the afternoon—having a splendid social time. Some one happened to look out and observed a real sand storm, with a high gale from the North, and again a sudden change in the weather, cold again before night. We waited until we thought all the dust was blown off the pike and we started home with old George and the rockaway. I took the lines to drive, and before we started my hat was blown away and Mr. Morgan ran after it, and after a considerable race caught it. Then I was compelled to get a driver to bring us home so I could hold on my hat, and J. D. Morgan kindly offered his services.

Talk about avoiding the gripe here! Some folks have already had it three times this winter, but in spite of all these unpleasant things, this is a great country, for it doesn't stay cold long, neither does one have the gripe longer than three or four days usually. Corn planting will begin by the 10th of this month. The cold weather has killed most of the early vegetables in this state, it has caused a great loss to gardeners.

Last Friday we spent a very pleasant day at cousin Mack Ray's. His wife is a daughter of cousin Amanda Miller's, who makes her home there when in Belton. Mr. Ray has 4 sons and 2 daughters. Three sons are working in the store of Ray & Elliott, and one son is at school. The two daughters, Daisy and Cora, were at home. After enjoying a most excellent dinner, prepared to suit the taste and appetite of all present, we were entertained in the afternoon with some fine music on the victrola.

Cousin Amanda Miller is the same quiet, spiritual minded woman here that she is in Kentucky when she makes her visits there. It is a pleasure to be with her. She is a pleasant cousin of W. B., and R. F., Rowe, of Columbia.

We hope to visit at Temple some this week, and other points out of town. We are both feeling some better and hope for more improvement as the weather gets better.

We had letters from a number of our Columbia friends last week, which we enjoyed. We were shocked to hear of the horrible death of our neighbor, Mrs. Heyd. She waved her hand at us from her porch as we left home. Little did we think then that it would be the last time we would see her. We feel in deep sympathy with Miss Rose in her sad bereavement, but Mrs. Heyd is at home with her Father in heaven, for she was a good woman. We note also the death of Mr. Triplett, one of the old citizens, who was a quiet and Christian man. The Lord bless his loved ones who will miss him so.

Z. T. Williams.

Jamestown.

Not having seen a letter from this place for some time, I thought I would write a few lines.

The graded school at this place closed February the second. A splendid entertainment was held Friday night, a large crowd attended. The program was well rendered. The most interesting part seemed to be the play given by the advanced pupils. "Dot the Miners Daughter," a temperance Drama. The behavior was good and everybody seemed to enjoy themselves.

Mr. Pet Vaughan has moved to Perkins roller mill. Mr. Vaughan is an excellent miller and we are proud to have him in our community.

Russell county has received its apportionment of state aid for the last two years work, the same being $5796.24.

Work on the Dixie is progressing slowly on the account of bad weather.

The Bridge over Greasy creek near Perkins mill is completed at a cost of about $5000. It was built by Vincene Bridge Co.

Uncle Jack Seaggs is very low at this writing and not expected to recover from the effects of double pneumonia. He being 74 years old.

Miss Edwin Leach has been visiting her grandparents for the past few days.

Bro. H. B. Guinn and wife who have been visiting in Jamestown for the past two weeks, returned to their home near Russell Springs last week.

Mrs. Albert Wolford who has been confined to her room for the past week is able to be out again.

Mr. Paul Grider who has been attending school at Jamestown returned home Saturday.

Little Lorne Wells who is attending school in Danville has measles.

Miss Olye Leach spent Friday night with her cousin, Mrs. Ida Wells.

J. P. Gaskins our interpreting saw mill man has moved his mill from this place to Concord ridge.

Mr. R. I. Bartleson of Monticello, was here Friday calling on our merchants.
